

SUGGESTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS TO:

THE MESF CYBER JOURNAL OF GEOSCIENCES

“MESF Cyber Journal of Geosciences” accepts the following types of contributed manuscripts. Feature Articles ;Meeting Report and Seminars proceedings and Book Review.

MESF request the manuscripts submitted in word processing packages such as MS Word, Rich Text Format, WordPerfect, plain Text in a common word processor format. PDF is not an accepted format.

For the purpose of reviewing, articles for publication should be submitted on via E-mail. . Please always retain a backup copy of your files. After revision, make absolutely sure that you send the latest version of your manuscript (including tables and figures) in electronic format.

Electronic figures

You should supply the electronic versions of your figures. We prefer figures in Microsoft® Office format.

Language

The journal's language is English.. We appreciate any efforts that you make to ensure that the language is corrected before submission. This will greatly improve the legibility of your paper if English is not your first language

Abstract

Please provide a short abstract of 100 to 250 words. The abstract should not contain any undefined abbreviations or unspecified references. . An additional Arabic Abstract is welcomed .

Key Words

Please provide 5 to 10 key words or short phrases in alphabetical order.

Abbreviations

Abbreviations and their explanations should be collected in a list.

Section Headings

Section headings should be numbered (e.g., 1., 1.1, 1.1.1, 2., 2.1, etc.).

Appendices

No appendices are accepted.

Notes

Please use endnotes rather than footnotes. Notes should be indicated by consecutive superscript numbers in the text and listed at the end of the article before the References. A source reference note should be indicated by means of an asterisk after the title. This note should be placed at the bottom of the first page.

Cross-Referencing

In the text, a reference identified by means of an author's name should be followed by the date of the reference in parentheses. When there are more than two authors, only the first author's name should be mentioned, followed by "et al.". In the event that an author cited has had two or more works published during the same year, the reference, both in the text and in the reference list, should be identified by a lower-case letter like 'a' and 'b' after the date to distinguish the works.

Examples:

Winograd (1986,)

(Winograd, (1986a, b)

(Winograd, 1986; Flores et al., 1988)

(Bullen and Bennett, 1990)

Acknowledgements

Acknowledgements of people, grants, funds, etc. should be placed in a separate section before the References.

References

References to books, journal articles, articles in collections and conference or workshop proceedings, and technical reports should be listed at the end of the article in alphabetical order. Articles in preparation or articles submitted for publication, unpublished observations, personal communications, etc. should not be included in the reference list but should only be mentioned in the article text (e.g., T. Moore, personal communication).

References to books should include the author's name; year of publication; title; page numbers where appropriate; publisher; place of publication, in the order given in the example below

References to articles in an edited collection should include the author's name; year of publication; article title; editor's name; title of collection; first and last page numbers; publisher; place of publication, in the order given in the example below.

References to articles in periodicals should include the author's name; year of publication; article title; full title of periodical; volume number (issue number where appropriate); first and last page numbers, in the order given in the example below.

References to technical reports or doctoral dissertations should include the author's name; year of publication; title of report or dissertation; institution; location of institution, in the order given in the example below.

Figures

All photographs, graphs and diagrams should be referred to as a 'Figure' and they should be numbered consecutively (1, 2, etc.). Multi-part figures ought to be labeled with lower case letters (a, b, etc.). Please insert keys and scale bars directly in the figures.. Provide a detailed legend (without abbreviations) to each figure, refer to the figure in the text and note its approximate location in the margin. Please place the legends in the manuscript after the references.

Tables

Each table should be numbered consecutively (1, 2, etc.). In tables, footnotes are preferable to long explanatory material in either the heading or body of the table. Such explanatory footnotes, identified by superscript letters, should be placed immediately below the table. Please provide a caption (without abbreviations) to each table, refer to the table in the text and note its approximate location in the margin. Finally, please place the tables after the figures legends in the manuscript.

Copyright

Authors will be asked, upon acceptance of an article, to transfer copyright of the article to MESF. This will ensure the widest possible dissemination of information under copyright laws.

Permissions

It is the responsibility of the author to obtain written permission for a quotation from unpublished material, or for all quotations in excess of 250 words in one extract or 500 words in total from any work still in copyright, and for the reprinting of figures, tables or poems from unpublished or copyrighted material.
